There is always a full after the election, and this time it has set in with unusual severity. The politicians have gone abroad or become hearse, no one is speating, and it is almost bad taste to make a political allusion. Men of science and men who het have talked a little about the Atlantic telegraph cable. Mark then and the public have been much interested in the audden fall of the thermometer same twenty degrees in one day, generaphera read attentively the accounts of war on the Plate, and mothers have shuddered a little at the deeds of Charlotte Winsor, but the political world is dull the most important event recorded being the resolution passed by a Commercial Convention at Detroit in favour of the Reciprocity Treaty, and the most exciting dispute as to the arithmetical espacity of the polling clerks who daclated Mr. "ope Hennessy defeated for Queen's County. So complete indeed is the absence of news, that a politician is creditably reported to have been seen reading the speeches made at an election of proctors for Convection. Detroit, in Michigan, on the 10th of July. It was Trade in the United States, and by representatives being little under six hundred. The voting appears to have been taken by States, each State having as many votes as it has electoral districts. and the discussions lasted four days. The Canadians did not vete, but did speak. Mr. Howe, of Novo Scotia, being admitted to have made the best [1] speech, and the American's anally come to three somewhat inconsistent resolutions. First that the neople could only be enabled to bear a high taxation by a strictly protectionist policy willob could "secure lubour its profit"; secondly, that a ship canal ought to be dug from Lake Ontario to Lake Frie; and thirdly, that the President ought, when the Reciprocity Treaty expired, to make another with the same objects, but securing to Americans the free navigation of all British Americ in rivers. No unkindly feeling wasexpressed towards Canada. and the leading papers of the Union, the Tribune and other strongly Protectionist journals excepted. decidedly endorse the opinion of the Convention.

convinced himself by careful inquiry that the stories of the treatment of the Northern prisoners by the south were true. He has seen and o myersed with victims of the Bouth, and believed that in the Libby prison place to Mr. Davis's house, the prisoners were literally starved that however food were sent hy their friends, but the authorities refuerd to distribute them, and "the prisoners diedfrom hunger in eight of plenty." At Andersonville, 15,000 Northern prisoners lie buried, all dead of fever and hunger; having been kept on a pirce of land without even a tent to cover them, with a tropical oun beating on their beads, and without food enough given them to keep a dog alive." ROBT. S. WALKER & Co. Hair: there can be no fixed or preventing fashion without descreying almost universally the barmony of the load ensemble. Indeed as diverse an in the contour of the human head and facial outline, just so peculiar should be the trim and arranges ment of the Hair. This fact is acted upon by only those Hair-Cutters who possess an inherent pany, are prepared to cocept Insuracen judgment in matters of taste, outivated and inproved by incessant study and application. Of this rare class. Professor WHEELER, bumbly claims to he one, and the Only One in this Colony, and he madestly but confidently invites all who may be distrustful of his ability to give him at least a trial before pronouncing an adverse opinion. He may be found at all hours of the day, in his Apart. ments adjoining the Privata Entrance of the Oriental Hotel.
